4 TRY IT YOURSELF

- A GAME Work in a group. Student A: Imagine you stayed in a hotel last week. Tell the group that you stayed in a great hotel or a terrible hotel. Then go in a circle. Say each student's sentence and add a new sentence. How many sentences can you say?

A: I stayed in a great hotel last week.

B: I stayed in a great hotel last week. I went swimming in the pool.

C: I stayed in a great hotel last week. I went swimming in the pool. I bought ...

- B GAME Play Truth or Lies with a new group. Say two true things and one lie about a vacation you had or a hotel you stayed in. The other students guess which thing you said is a lie.

A: I went to Mexico City last year. My hotel had three pools. I walked on the beach.

B: That's a lie! You didn't walk on the beach in Mexico City! There's no beach there!

A: You're right!
